

RECESS.

On motion of Mr. Boyd, the House, at 6:30 o'clock p. m., took recess to 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

SEVENTEENTH DAY.

(Friday, August 14, 1931.)

The House met at 9 o'clock a. m., and was called to order by Speaker Minor.

PROVIDING FOR CERTAIN EMPLOYEES.

Mr. Hardy offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The House of Representatives is now sitting as an investigation body to investigate charges filed against J. B. Price, judge of the Twenty-first Judicial District of the State of Texas; and

Whereas, Said investigation hearings will probably last for several days and during said time it will be necessary to have certain employees for the operation of said House of Representatives; and

Whereas, It is not necessary to retain all of the employees of the House of Representatives who were employed during the First Called Session of the Legislature; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the Speaker be, and he is hereby, authorized to continue in the employment of the House of Representatives during the impeachment proceedings and hearings, or as long as he may deem necessary, such employees as to him may seem necessary and expedient, and that said employees so retained shall receive the same compensation as was received by them during the legislative period of the First Called Session of the Forty-second Legislature. The duties of said employees shall be such as are required by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. Any of the employees may be excused by the Speaker for causes deemed by him to be sufficient; provided, however, that any employee who shall absent himself or herself without leave shall not receive any compensation for the time of his or her absence. The salaries of said employees shall begin when they are instructed to begin work by the Speaker.

HARDY,
SANDERS,
HUBBARD,
HOLDER.

The resolution was read second time, and was adopted.
